

Rethinking the Digital: New Media Art and the Active Viewer

How To Connect Live

To join us via videoconference, Internet web stream, or St. Louis area television, please read the enrollment information below. Advance enrollment is required for a videoconference connection and recommended for other viewing methods as well in order to receive the program's preparatory materials, including a detailed agenda. Additional information on the exhibition and related curriculum standards are also included below. More details about the Kemper Art Museum and the Window | Interface exhibition, including related curriculum resources, can be found at <http://kemperartmuseum.wustl.edu>.

How to Enroll for this Program: Each program will be offered live via videoconference, Internet web streaming and broadcast programming.

1. To view as a Videoconference School—Videoconference space for the program is limited to three schools per show. These students will have face-to-face interaction with the Mildred Lane Kemper Museum. To enroll as a videoconference school, contact RoundTrips at roundtrips@clayton.k12.mo.us or 314-773-6934. Once enrolled, teachers will receive the program's preparatory and evaluation materials.

2. To view via the Internet—Viewing via the web is unlimited but enrollment is necessary to receive the program's preparatory and evaluation materials. Students viewing in this way can e-mail their questions during the program to roundtrips@clayton.k12.mo.us. To enroll your students for web viewing, contact RoundTrips at roundtrips@clayton.k12.mo.us or 314-773-6934. Once enrolled, teachers will receive the program's preparatory and evaluation materials. To watch the program live via the web, surf your computer to www.roundtrips.org on the program day and click on the program link or surf directly to our web streaming provider at <http://commonsvcg.oar.net/RoundTrips>. Please note this web address is case sensitive. Since many schools limit streaming video through their firewalls, we recommend testing your ability to view the stream prior to the program by watching one of RoundTrips' archived programs at www.roundtrips.org. We also recommend viewing the program live on one computer only and connecting that computer to a television or digital projector for classroom viewing. Should you have questions about this approach to viewing, please contact us.

3. To view via Cable Television—The program will be shown live in the St. Louis metropolitan area on channel 22, Cooperating School District of St. Louis' educational television channel. Students viewing in this way can e-mail their questions during the program to roundtrips@clayton.k12.mo.us. Viewing via cable television is unlimited but enrollment is necessary to receive the program's preparatory and evaluation materials. To enroll your students for web or TV viewing, contact RoundTrips at roundtrips@clayton.k12.mo.us or 314-773-6934. Once enrolled, teachers will receive the program's preparatory and evaluation materials. To view the show live on the program day, just turn on your TV to channel 22.

After its live presentation, the program will be archived at <http://www.roundtrips.org> for on-demand viewing available at any time. You can also obtain a DVD copy of the program by contacting RoundTrips at roundtrips@clayton.k12.mo.us.
